

Circuit Notices

In our attempt to cut down the amount of printing that local Churches need to do, We have removed the lists of 'regular' activities. Often people are passing by notices that appear week after week. For a time, we are going to advertise specific – nonrepeating activities/events. If you have dates, you would like publicising just let us know.

October 21st, 2025 - Dimmingsdale with James Brunt

James Brunt is a land artist who works with parts found in the natural world creating responses to the environment. Come and take part in creating land art suitable for the landscape around Dimmingsdale.

Working across ages and family units this is a session for strengthening relationships, building community across age groups and developing creative practice outdoors. People will be using materials from the natural world to create landscape art, the session is also suitable for people who enjoy documenting the processes of creation, e.g. through photography or writing.

Times: 10am-12pm (self-referral*), 1.30-3.30pm (community / social prescriber referral)

Meeting point: Dimmingsdale car park, Red Road, Alton, Stoke-on-Trent, ST10 4BU

If you are interested in learning whether this is something you, or a group you coordinate, can benefit from,

contact: waymaking@outsidearts.org

* All are welcome to this session to which we particularly encourage parents / carers of young people not in full time, mainstream education. Guide age 7 – 16 years upwards and children must be accompanied by their parent / carer for the whole session.
